TRIBAL

WALLCOVERING COLLECTION

Tribal plays forward ancient treatments of plasterwork with the modern benefit of sturdiness and flexibility. Each panel is created by hand with layers of customized glazes of color that eventually come together with an expressive screen of hand-rendered art. Once merged, the artist's delicate coaxing of colors and materials yield an emotive surface of texture and depth. Tribal resonates with primitive artistry and at the same time speaks to an intrinsic assertion of community today.
