WALLCOVERING COLLECTION

GREGORIUS | PINEO

HANA

MASQUE

The beauty of bold, painterly Ikats finds a new expression in our latest collection of woven, natural wallcoverings. IKATS captures creative director George Massar’s love of color tones going back to his Southern California roots. “Those colors are always in the recesses of my mind,” he says. Three qualities – HANA, TIDES and MASQUE – all evoke the hues found in George’s memories of the region’s captivating colors of earth, sea and sky and the play of light between them.

Patterns are hand-laid and tied and woven in a wide-spectrum of colors and fibers. In this complex exchange, heavy and light cottons and twisty Linens, with and without slubs, go under and over, passing through light and dark, to achieve their own unique watercolor Ikat statement.

Our three IKATS wallcovering patterns, offered in thirteen colorways, are exclusively designed and woven in Los Angeles. Each design showcases a richness in craftsmanship, an appreciation of culture to craft, and a bridging of past to present.

The pleasing scale of geometric elements in this design lends elegance and controlled understatement to earth-inspired tones.
